Description: A valley taxi will bring the participants to Lahneralm in the Hollersbach valley. Most of the elevation gain is tackled right at the beginning uphill to Lachgrundalm. Afterwards, the Lachalm High Trail follows with a gentle downhill through expansive, autumnal alpine meadows back to the starting point (Berghof). The hike is rewarded with a wonderful view of the mountains in the Hollersbach valley. For fit hikers, a summit ascent to the Platte (1,787 m) is also possible.
