Description: The journey begins directly in Wörth or Rauris by bus. Together with a ranger, the group travels to the highest panoramic road in Austria, offering the opportunity to admire the unique mountain scenery around the Großglockner before the hike even begins. Upon reaching Mittertörl, the actual hike starts, steadily descending towards the Seidlwinkltal. Passing through the Labböden and Litzlhofalm, the group reaches the Rauriser Tauernhaus in the early afternoon, where the tour ends. The return transport is provided by taxi.
