Description: With the National Park bus, we travel from our meeting point to Finkau. From there, the hike begins on a well-maintained trail leading to the Leitenkammer Gorge. Viewing platforms offer an impressive insight into the fascinating world of the gorge. Along the stream, you can spot white-throated dippers as well as grey and white wagtails. From the Trisslalm (1,584 m), a trail takes us through ancient stone pine forests, past the tree line, and up to the Wildkar Hochalm. We then return to our starting point via the scenic Leitenkammer Trail.
