

High-alpine Stubach valley

Where winter becomes mystical

Level of difficulty: Moderately difficult snowshoe hike that requires a very good level of fitness and takes you through steep terrain.

Equipment: Sturdy, ankle-high footwear (ideally hiking boots); warm socks, ski sticks, warm clothing (including hat and gloves), sunscreen, alpine rucksack with warm drinks and snacks

Costs: € 22 adults; Children and young people (10–16 yrs) free when accompanied by their parents. Free with the "Gästecard" or Nationalpark WinterCard!

Included in price: Snowshoe and ski stick hire (please advise when booking).

Meeting point: Every Tuesday (from 31.12.24–25.03.25) at 10:00 from the Weißsee bottom station.

How to reach us: By Taxibus (please follow the information from the tourist office) or car to the Enzingerboden car park. Ski transfer is highly dependent on the operation of the Weißsee Glacier World cable cars!

Duration: Approx. 4–4.5 hours

Pure walking time: Approx. 2.5 hours

Route: Approx. 5.5–6 kilometres

Ascent: Approx. 250 vertical metres

Refreshment stops: Possible at the end of the tour

Booking: No booking required – simply turn up at meeting point at the specified time, our ranger will start punctually.

Description: The snowshoe hike will start at the Weißsee Glacier World ticket office. From there, the tour will follow the road to the junction with a forestry road. This is where the real winter adventure begins. If you are lucky, you will see animal tracks along the forestry road and then the woodland path. The forest thins out after about 3km and the destination is within reach. Once you reach a mountain hut, you will be able to see the high alpine parts of the Stubach valley. You are now in a world that reveals the mystical magic of winter! Return along the same route.
