Description: The snowshoe tour starts at the Bodenhaus car park, which can be reached by bus or car. After putting on your snowshoes, you will leave the road and walk across snow-covered meadows and fields. On the way you will pass winter ponds and catch glimpses of the snow-covered Hüttwinkel valley. After about 2km we will leave the edge of the forest and enter the woods where, with a bit of luck, we may see animal tracks. The way back follows the Hüttwinklache stream, alternating between forest and clearings. A magical snowshoe hike is guaranteed!
