- Description: From the Finkau, the first meters of the tour lead past the Leitenkammerklamm along a forest road. From the Trisslalm to the Wildkar – Hochalm, the ascent through the steep larch and Swiss stone pine forest becomes somewhat more challenging. However, above lies a vast karst landscape with beautiful ski slopes. Just before the summit, the skis are left in a notch. The final meters to the scenic summit follow a rocky ridge with a short steep section. An alpine panorama towards the Reichenspitze, Gabler, Dreiherrenspitze, and Großvenediger makes the tour particularly worthwhile. The summit view is only surpassed by the descent through the Wildkar in good snow conditions (no guarantee!).
